FINAL RULING NO. 2010-76 November 5, 2010

Denial of 2009 New Home Tax Credit Application

FINAL RULING

The Department of Revenue ("the DOR") has denied the application for a new home tax credit submitted by a submitted pursuant to KRS 141.388. The application was received by the DOR on Markov, 2010. The sole basis of the DOR's denial of the credit is that this application had to be received before Markov, 2010, as Markov's residence was purchased on 2010, and therefore, the application was not submitted to the DOR in a timely manner.

The statute creating the new home tax credit unambiguously states:

Within seven (7) calendar days after the purchase of a qualified principal residence, the qualified buyer shall submit via fax a completed application for the new home tax credit on forms provided by the department.

Furthermore, KRS 141.388(4) provides:

The application for the new home tax credit shall be void if:

(b) The application is not received within seven (7) calendar days from the purchase; or

(c) The application is not received within thirty (30) calendar days from June 4, 2010, for purchases of a qualified residence after November 6, 2009.....

Under the facts and applicable law stated above, the application at issue was not received by the DOR within thirty (30) calendar days from 1999, 2010 and is therefore void. 1999 argues that this requirement should be overlooked or excused because the builder was unable to sign the document until 1999, 2010.

KRS 141.388 is clear as to the filing time requirements.

For the reasons stated above, the new home tax credit was properly denied in this case.

This letter is the final ruling of the Department of Revenue.

APPEAL

You may appeal this final ruling to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals pursuant to the provisions of KRS 131.110, KRS 131.340-131.365, 103 KAR 1:010 and 802 KAR 1:010.
